Classroom Interactions Shape Young Minds

How the way we interact with children influences how they feel, behave, and learn.

Positive Interactions

INFLUENCE

- Trust
- Security
- Social-Emotional Development
- Cooperation

TONE

- Calm
- Encouraging
- Joyful
- Respectful

Neutral Interactions

INFLUENCE

- Order
- Routine
- Structure

TONE

- Efficient
- Structured

Negative Interactions

INFLUENCE

- Stress
- Insecurity
- Lower Self-Esteem
- Fear

TONE

- Harsh
- Unsafe
- Emotionally Tense

Overall

Positive interactions are crucial for a nurturing, productive learning environment.

Neutral interactions support routines but should not replace positive interactions.

Negative interactions should be avoided.